Sir:

After review of the file for the present application on the PAIR system and further confirmation by the examiner, it appears that the Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) filed on March 28, 2005 was not made of record. Upon further review it was noticed that a typographical error occurred in the serial number of the application on the IDS filed. Specifically, the serial number was entered as 10/037,567 but should have been 10/038,567. The required fee of $180 was withdrawn from Applicant's deposit account.

In accordance with the examiner's suggestion, Applicant herewith submits the IDS with the correct serial number along with the required fee of $180 which, as mentioned above, has already been paid (see attached statement from deposit account 21-0380).

Because the IDS was originally filed before the date of the Notice of Allowance, albeit with the incorrect serial number, Applicant respectfully requests entry and consideration of the IDS.

Respectfully submitted,
CAHN & SAMUELS, L.L.P.
